To kick off Pride Month:

- Our GSA and supporters will be painting the Rainbow Crosswalk!
- Our library classes next week for K-6 students will be focused on celebrating our differences and accepting the differences in others. We will hear a story about , a red crayon that wants to be blue (Red: a Crayons Story by Michael Hall) and a story about a llama that loves to be, glamorous, to dance and wants to live in the city (Llama Glamarama by Simon James) Students will create a picture of themselves.
